COMMUNITY MEETING TO DISCUSS LOVETTSVILLE AREA SCHOOLS

On Wednesday, May 28th, 2008 at 7pm at the Lovettsville Elementary School located at 49 South Loudoun Street in Lovettsville, a community meeting will be held to discuss the latest developments regarding the status of the proposed elementary school (ES-25) scheduled for opening in Fall of 2012, the middle school (MS-10) scheduled for opening Fall of 2015, and the High School (HS-10) scheduled for opening Fall of 2017, that will serve Lovettsville and the surrounding areas.

Members of the community are urged to attend to get an update on the status of these future schools and provide input into this process.

Meeting participants include, Catoctin District Supervisor Sally Kurtz and Blue Ridge District Supervisor Jim Burton, of the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors, Mayor Elaine Walker of the Town of Lovettsville, Catoctin District School Board Member, Jennifer Bergel, Blue Ridge District School Board Member Priscilla Godfrey and Loudoun County Public Schools Staff.
